

Reflection group presentations arising from cluster algebras

Robert Marsh
University of Leeds

We give a presentation of a finite crystallographic reflection group in terms of an arbitrary seed in the corresponding cluster algebra of finite type (without coefficients) and interpret the presentation in terms of companion bases in the associated root system.